

Arrived and unpacked! Our stocking up just before Christmas with hundreds of useful and unusual novelties for men and boys is no longer a novelty our "baby" is now full grown.

Men buyers abroad buy from a man's point of view.

For his personal comfort-For his travels, his motor, his desk and his room.

Novelties in leather and metal mostly, and always goods of real merit, even the most moderately priced-of which, by the way, there are many.

Usually only one or two of a kind, so the variety is wide and exclusive.

EDGAR R. JACKSON LOSES SUIT.

Former Employee of Realty Dealer Gets $44,014 Judgment.

Supreme Court Justice Kelby in Brooklyn yesterday awarded a judg-ment of $44,014.42 to E. B. Dennison against Edgar R. Jackson, president of the Jackson Bros. Realty Company of 507 Fifth avenue, Manhattan. The suft was for commissions on the sale of eighty-three acres of Long Island realty by Dennison as an employee of the Jackson brothers. The company held that he had been employed by E. n. Jackson personally. Justice Kelby de-Jackson personally. Justice Residence of Color o the sale of forty-six acres.

The suit is only one of the results of trouble between Dennison and the Jacksons. Following his own arrest on a charge of criminal libel, Dennison urged certain persons engaged in business with the Jacksons to make complaint against them. E. R. Jackcon is now awaiting trial before Supreme Court Justice Goff in Manhattan on an indictment charging him with frauds in Long Island realty.

DOMESTIC RUGS REDUCED

Illustrative of our values—a 12 ft. x 9 ft. Seamless Wilton Rug, Macy's price $41.89, is advertised elsewhere at $50.00.

The Royal Wilton Rugs and the Axminsters are in the smaller sizes that are being bought so extensively now as "scatter" Rugs, and are mostly in "Allover" effects copied from rare Oriental Rugs.

The Seamless Wilton Rugs are woven from the finest worsted yarns procurable, and are dyed with dyes imported from Germany, after being most carefully cleaned and scoured before entering the loom. They are in Oriental effects or in solid tones. The Rugs in Oriental effects have light and medium grounds, with the characteristic Persian medallion. The solid toned Rugs are in tan, brown, pink, rose, blue and green, with border either double or triple, or in the old Gre	eek "Key" pattern.
